

- Users do not have exclusive use of the loch / site, there may be other users using the site and loch. There may be times when the access is restricted due to training or event.
- To use the fob at the changing rooms hold it next to the sensor, you will hear a beep and you will be granted access.
- Knockburn Loch / 2D Sports Limited / 2D Developments accepts no liability for, personal loss and / or damage to any individual and / or their property whilst using the site for any activity.
- The site is not manned at all times; therefore there is no 'safety cover' for any activities. In the case of an emergency it is your responsibility to have your own access to first aid provision. If the emergency services are needed (and you do not get mobile reception), there is an emergency phone located on the North end of the conference Centre (in the area between the changing rooms, and conference Centre). You will find, on the inside, the post code to the site and local contact numbers (Site manager, Local doctors etc.)
- Fobs may not be loaned or passed to third parties for use. The entry system records all activity on each fob enabling us to monitor access in combination with the CCTV on site.
- Please refrain from blocking open the changing room doors as this contravenes our secure access policy .
- When you leave the changing rooms , you will have to take your fob with you to get back in to the changing rooms. There is a board at loch side for you to hang up your key fob for collection after your swim.
- Speed Limit - on site is 10mph. This is to ensure the safety of all site users, please observe this and drive with due care and attention at all times.
- Knockburn has a no dog policy in or around the Loch (except guide dogs). Do not leaving dogs in cars.
- Littering - there is to be no litter left on site, please take it home with you.
- If you are to access the loch with canoes/ boats, you are welcome to drive down to the loch edge. Please take care when doing so and ensure your car is not blocking any access.
- All under 18s must be supervised by a responsible adult at all times.
- No amplified music is allowed on site due to the nature of the site and planning conditions.
- No own Bar-B-Qs are allowed on site.
- Sports activities can be dangerous and that any body of water can act in sudden and unpredictable ways which may result in serious injury to those taking part in the activity.
- If required listen and abide by all safety briefs and recommendations given by the staff / team / Instructors of Knockburn Loch.
